Sarnath Museum building was completed in 1910 and from then it was open for the public. This museum has a huge collection of artefacts which belong to different religious such as Hindu, Jaina & Buddhism however, there are two unique sculptures namely Lion Capital & Preaching Buddha displayed inside the museum attracts visitors more. The first is the famous Ashokan Lion Capital of 3rd century B.C.E. was also discovered from Sarnath Excavated site in 1904 C.E.
